

Part-Time Tour Guide

Position Description

Location: Kahuku, Hawaii

We are seeking a knowledgeable and enthusiastic individual to join our farm team as a Farm Tour Guide. In this role, you will lead tours of varying group sizes through the model farm and hydroponic greenhouse, sharing knowledge of agriculture, local history, and culture, while ensuring the safety and enjoyment of our visitors. If you have a passion for farming, and enjoy interacting with people in an outdoor environment, this may be the perfect opportunity for you.

Responsibilities:

Guided Farm Tours: Receive training, and then conduct engaging and informative tours for visitors and local residents, highlighting the unique features and stories of this farm and the local area. Tailor your presentations to the interests and needs of the guests.

Education: Share insights into Hawaiian farming practices, the importance of sustainability, and the cultural significance of agriculture in Hawai'i.

Customer Interaction: Create a warm and welcoming atmosphere for guests, answer questions, and provide exceptional customer service throughout the tour.

Safety: Ensure the safety of tour participants by adhering to all safety guidelines and protocols, especially in farm environments.

Storytelling: Weave narratives that connect visitors to the land, its unique history, and the people.

Product Knowledge: Stay updated on the farms' offerings, produce, and products to effectively promote products to guests.

Team Collaboration: Collaborate with fellow guides and farm staff to maintain the highest standards of visitor experience.

Farm Participation: Opportunity to participate in farm-related tasks if interested, such as supporting volunteer or group events and general farm maintenance as needed. Assisting with farm-related events and activities, such as workshops, festivals, and special promotions if interested.

Qualifications:

- Passion for agriculture, nature, and place-based education.
- Excellent communication and public speaking skills.
- Ability to work outdoors in various weather conditions.
- Strong interpersonal skills and a friendly, approachable demeanor.
- Flexibility and adaptability in a dynamic, customer-focused environment.
- Knowledge of Hawaiian history, culture, and agriculture (preferred but not required).
- This position may require irregular hours, including weekends and holidays, to accommodate tour schedules.
- Valid driver's license and/or reliable transportation to commute to the farm location.
- Physical Requirements: Ability to work in outdoor environments including moderate humidity and periodic rainfall; able to perform physical tasks, such as lifting and carrying up to 50 pounds, as well as walking, standing, and bending for extended periods of time.

If you are passionate about farming, love working with people, and want to share the beauty of Hawai'i's agriculture with visitors, we want to hear from you! Please submit your resume and cover letter to apply for this exciting opportunity.

Schedule: Up to 19 hours a week. Tours are 45 minutes long and take place on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, though days may shift/expand in the future. Typically one (1) to three (3) tours per day between the hours of 8:30am-2pm.

Starting Pay: $18.00-$20.00/hour, based on education and experience.

To apply, please submit a cover letter and resume to ponojobs@ponopacific.com, or mail to: Pono Pacific Land Management, 55 Merchant Street, Suite 3100, Honolulu, HI 96813.

This description is not designed to be a complete list of all duties and responsibilities required for this job.*

In accordance with Federal Law, Pono Pacific is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.*